

THE BUSTLING BRICK

Brick Hotel On The Circle Newsletter

Volume 76 March 2016

I'M BAAAAACK!! Yea, I know – you didn't even know I was gone! Don't feel bad ... it really is okay! Typical of all small privately owned businesses, it's pretty difficult and a long road to get yourself to a point when you feel like you can take some time away from your "baby". You have to be surrounded by people you trust and people who will represent you the same as they do when you're around. You have to have developed a clientele that recognizes that while you are the reason for the business, you have to have a staff that keeps them coming back, and you have to be willing to cut the cord a little bit. Well, helloooo, that's my situation!! I headed to Florida the first of the month to spend some time with Ed who, yes, has decided he is ready to be a full-time snowbird. My 2 weeks turned into almost 4 and as I write this I am preparing for my return the first week of March. But, as expected, things have gone just fine in my absence ... especially lots of love flowing over Valentine's weekend. We realize that there are a lot of options from which to choose, so I want to personally thank all of you who supported The Brick and other local restaurants in your hometowns. This is one of the industry's biggest days of the year, and we count on our local support. It means a lot to all of us that so many chose to share such a special, love-filled evening and weekend with us at The Brick!

INN-SIDE News: Oyster Eat weekend is always a fun weekend for us, especially in the Inn. This year a very loving wife reserved 6 rooms for her husband and his brothers who will be celebrating his 50th birthday with us – or rather at the GEORGETOWN FIRE HALL! They apparently come every year, but this is their first sleep-over!! We will look forward to keeping them safe both before and after the Oyster Eat, and to make sure that this year's Oyster Eat is one they will always remember!

I may have mentioned in my last newsletter that we are seeing increased traffic from the legal community. What's most exciting is that we have law firms fighting over us! My manager, Kelly, recently called me with a dilemma. 2 law firms called within 2-3 hours of one another, one from California, the other from New York, looking for the same dates. What to do?!?!? Yep – they're fighting over who's going to get to us first – how cool is that?!?! Over the years, I have to admit that I've gotten a little smarter ☺ Long story short, the Inn is now booked the first two weeks in February 2017! Go US, go Kelly!! Do I really need to come back?!?!? LOL.
